The nonprofit corporation was established in August 2019 for charitable and educational purposes exclusively for Fr. Felix K. Yaoch S.J. Endowment Fund to support Palauan citizens who are attending accredited post-secondary education majoring in any of the following disciplines: counseling, human services, psychology, social work, and theology. A maximum of five (5) awards at five hundred dollars ($500.00) each will be awarded every year.

Counseling:

Counselors are trained to provide counseling to almost anyone who seeks their services and are typically not focused on one area of treatment. The major job is to talk with patients and help them work through their issues

Human Services:

Is an interdisciplinary field of study with the objecting of human needs through applied knowledge base, focusing on prevention as well as remediation of problems, and maintaining a commitment to improving overall quality of life of service populations.

Psychology:

Is the study of the mind and behavior. It is a multifaceted discipline and includes many sub-fields of study such as areas of human development, sports, health, clinical and social behavior and cognitive processes.

Social Work:

Is an academic discipline and profession that concerns itself with individuals, families, groups and communities in an effort to enhance functioning and overall wellbeing.

Theology:

Is the study of religion. It examines the human experience of faith, and how different people and culture express it. It is more than just a vocational training. It is about life, meaning, belief and identity at the deepest level.
